

2017 Cesar Chavez Honoree:

Beth Schultz

"Mrs. (Schultz) has helped us with kids' issues at school in Lahaina. She also helps people with no resources providing food and furniture."

"I choose Beth because she is a wonderful person with a huge heart, devoted to serve and help people. She is someone you can trust, a person with integrity. Regardless the time or the day, she is always willing to listen and to help you."

"She is an incredible person. Whenever she is needed she is there with encouraging words and that is with whomever needs her. Personally she is a blessed individual always able to bless whomever needs it."

"Pastor Beth as chaplain at MMMC is strength and comfort to those at the hospital when need an encouraging word or a shoulder to lean on during difficult times. Pastor Beth has God's heart and shares God's love by being available to help at the hospital as well as pastoring God's work through Spanish ministry. Pastor Beth is a woman of great faith, she is happy and such a blessing to us all."

"Beth Schultz spends herself on others. Her time, resources, and even her home are investments she makes for others' benefit rather than her own."

"She fights and seeks to defend and protect offering support and companionship to all individuals that approach her whether they belong to her congregation or not. ... As a family we enjoy her love and friendship and with that we understand Beth as God sent as a bridge and support for us to be able to maneuver in a society we know very little and from which we are separated due to the English language (barrier).
