If the recipient does not give you a written Notice of Final Action within 90 days of the date on which you filed your complaint, you do not have to wait for the recipient to issue that Notice before filing a complaint with the FTA. However, you must file your FTA complaint within 30 days of the 90-day deadline (in other words, within 120 days after the day on which you filed your complaint with the recipient).

If the recipient does give you a written Notice of Final Action on your complaint, but you are dissatisfied with the decision or resolution, you may file a complaint with the FTA. You must file your FTA complaint within 30 days of the date on which you receive the Notice of Final Action.
